Message From President & Hon. Secretary

Dear Members,

“Coming together is a beginning, keeping together is progress, and working together is success.”

The past few weeks have truly reflected the vibrant spirit, unity, and progressive vision of Ahmedabad Medical Association. Along with academic excellence, AMA continues to create meaningful opportunities for bonding, learning, wellness, and social responsibility among members.

I am delighted to share that AMA successfully organized the International Family Tour to Bali, Indonesia, for our members and their families. Around 28 doctors enthusiastically participated in this memorable journey. The tour became a wonderful blend of relaxation, recreation, friendship, and togetherness. Beyond sightseeing, it provided a valuable opportunity for members and families to spend quality time together, strengthen bonds, and create lifelong memories.

The warmth, cooperation, punctuality, and cheerful spirit of all participating members greatly contributed to the success of the tour. Such activities remind us that a strong medical association is built not only through academic programs, but also through friendship, mutual respect, and shared experiences.

“Strong associations are built when professionals connect as families.”

On the academic front, AMA had the privilege of hosting the National Digital Health Masterclass on 10th May 2026 in collaboration with Indian Medical Association Headquarters and IMA Gujarat State Branch. The workshop received an overwhelming response with participation from nearly 120 doctors, hospital administrators, and healthcare leaders.

We were honoured by the presence of distinguished dignitaries including Dr. Anilkumar Nayak, Dr. Anil Patel, Dr. Yagnesh Popat, and other respected leaders from IMA Headquarters and Gujarat State Branch.

The sessions focused on practical implementation of Digital Health systems, EMR, HMIS, and NABH Digital Health Standards, helping hospitals and clinics prepare for the rapidly evolving healthcare environment. The workshop was highly appreciated for its practical and future-oriented approach.

AMA is also moving ahead with several exciting and meaningful initiatives in the coming weeks. Under our “Rupaantaran” program, we are launching a staff training initiative for hospital and clinic staff members aimed at improving communication skills, patient interaction, confidence, and workplace efficiency.

We are also happy to note that the AMA Ladies Club is organizing a one-day conference on 14th June, which promises to be academically enriching and socially engaging.

Adding another beautiful social initiative, AMA recently organized a special senior citizens' movie show of the Gujarati film “LALO” on 24th May, creating a joyful and entertaining experience for senior members and families.

As we move towards July, AMA is preparing for an inspiring Doctors' Day Week 2026 celebration from 1st to 7th July under the theme “Celebrating Healers, Inspiring Society.” The week will include blood donation drives across hospitals and clinics, CPR awareness and emergency response training programs in colleges, spiritual wellness activities, and a grand musical evening for doctors and their families.

“Service to humanity is the true essence of the medical profession.”

These initiatives reflect AMA's commitment not only towards academic and professional excellence, but also towards community service, wellness, friendship, and social responsibility. Together, let us continue strengthening the spirit of unity, compassion, and fellowship within our medical fraternity.

Warm regards,

Jai AMA - Jai IMA

With gratitude and pride,

National Digital Health Masterclass

Digital health has become a cornerstone in transforming healthcare delivery across India, particularly within its vast and diverse health system. Digital health tools help improve patient experience as well as patient safety, workplace efficiency and patient outcomes. EMR and EHR solutions enable hospitals to store and retrieve patient data seamlessly, minimize errors and support informed decision – thus leading to better health outcomes.

Initiatives like Ayushman Bharat Digital Mission (ABDM) provide a strong platform to create a unified digital health ecosystem and promote health data portability for all citizens.

QCI and NABH are promoting Digital health through the NABH Digital Health Accreditation Program for Hospitals – which is designed to help hospitals approach digital health in a structured and comprehensive manner. To keep parity with NABH Hospital Accreditation standards, these DH standards also follow a chapter wise approach, with each chapter having standards and objective elements – the 2nd edition has 8 chapters, 38 standards, and 182 objective elements, covering clinical, non-clinical and IT related areas. The program was launched in 2023 and 188 hospitals have successfully received this accreditation.

A common problem faced by hospitals is making the 'right choice' of software (HIS, EMR) – to address this concern NABH has come out with Certification standards for HIS/EMR systems. By selecting a software application certified by NABH, hospitals would be assured of investing in a software which conforms to quality standards related to safety, data security, and patient care. Currently, 14 HIS/EMR systems have been certified by NABH and more are in the evaluation process.

Koita Foundation and Indian Medical Association (IMA) are conducting Digital Health Masterclass to create better awareness and understanding of Digital Health standards amongst healthcare – the class content includes in-depth understanding of digital health; planning, budgeting, selecting and implementing appropriate software applications.

Let us all work together to support the medical fraternity and healthcare provider in the digital health journey towards Viksit Bharat 2047.

Forging the future of healthcare

Cutting-edge technology, collaboration, and a preventive approach are reshaping medicine, said experts at AMA Livewellcon 2026, presented by Ahmedabad Medical Association and The Times of India

Aspiring to bridge the gap between medical expertise and patient care, the annual AMA Livewellcon 2026—Annual Health Conference of Ahmedabad Medical Association—drew an enthusiastic response from a community of doctors, fitness enthusiasts, parents, and concerned people on April 17, 2026, at Nandkumar Innovation Centre, Rajaj University. From cutting-edge holistic ways of living to enabling patient care approaches, the annual health conference offered a comprehensive look at the present and future of health care. Presented by Ahmedabad Medical Association and The Audience listening to speakers during sessions

Times of India, and supported by Gujarat Tourism, Gujarat Health & Medical Super Speciality Hospital, Renavanta Medical Districts Network, DMMMA (Drug Marketing & Manufacturing Association), Adma, Maruti Laxmi, Resonance Hospital, and Siroko Pharma, the annual health conference started with curiosity and concern as medical professionals sought to address not the typical health issues discussed across such medical conferences but issues that are how those diseases turn up. Dr Jignesh Shah, the president of Ahmedabad Medical Association, said, "AMA Livewellcon 2026 reflected the evolving medical landscape where disease prevention, early diagnosis, and holistic healthcare delivery." Hence, with expert-led sessions and interactive discussions, the event highlighted the importance of continuous learning and collaboration in this ever-changing medical landscape.

Some of the eminent speakers featured Suresh Vyas, an actor and health and life coach, Dr. Jignesh Shah, a post and administrative speaker, Dr. Prakash Jit, a physician from Maharashtra, Dr. Pragvesh Yachwanji from NRI and professor of cyber security, and Dr. Naik Patel, an urologist, author, and doctor.

One of the most compelling highlights of the conference was its strong focus on Medical Value Travel (MVT), an emerging sector positioning India—and particularly Gujarat—as a global healthcare destination. In collaboration with Gujarat Tourism, the discussions delved into how the state can leverage its rich medical infrastructure, skilled professionals, and cost-effective treatments to attract international patients. Experts shared strategies to enhance patient experience, streamline processes, and build trust among global audiences, emphasizing the idea that healthcare today extends beyond borders. Kidneypani, India, a representative of Gujarat Tourism, shared, "To position our state as a global medical tourism hub, strong collaboration between government, healthcare, and industry is essential—and this platform was a step in that direction."

What truly set the conference apart was its multi-stakeholder approach. Dr.

Unlocking new opportunities in healthcare, the conference witnessed 800+ leading medical professionals on one platform

Maulik Sheth, the executive secretary, shared, "Today's doctors need to go beyond clinical practice. Focus on communication, financial awareness, and wellbeing is equally important in modern medicine."

Equally significant were the sessions dedicated to communication skills. Through interactive discussions and real-life case studies, speakers highlighted how effective communication can bridge gaps, build trust, and reduce instances of conflict in an era where misinformation and patient concerns are prevalent. The emphasis on clear, compassionate dialogue felt both timely and necessary.

The conference also turned a spotlight inward, addressing the pressing issue of doctor wellbeing and burnout. Dr. Anil Patel, the president of AMA, Gujarat, shared, "Doctor's wellness and strong doctor-patient relationships are key to a sustainable healthcare system, and initiatives like AMA Livewellcon 2026 are the first of their kind." With long working hours, high-pressure environments, and emotional strain becoming the norm, speakers on fitness, mental health, and work-life balance resonated deeply with attendees. Experts advocated for simple yet impactful lifestyle changes, mindfulness practices, and institutional support systems to help doctors sustain their passion without compromising their health.

Adding an unconventional yet exciting dimension to the event were sessions that drew inspiration from the Bhagavad Gita and explored the role of 'dharma' in medicine. The discussions, meanwhile, served as a reminder that fitness and lively conversations with responsibility, often acting as powerful tools in patient care as well as personal coping mechanisms.

Recognizing the importance of financial literacy in a doctor's career, the conference also featured dedicated sessions on financial management. From investment planning to understanding the nuances of owning a medical practice, these discussions aimed to equip doctors with the knowledge needed to make informed financial decisions.

The future of healthcare, driven by rapid technological advancements, formed another key pillar of the event. Sessions explored how digital tools, artificial intelligence, and data-driven systems are transforming patient care and operational efficiency. While acknowledging the immense potential of technology, speakers also stressed the importance of maintaining human touch.

Dedicated sessions for medical students and young doctors focused on career pathways, skill development, and navigating the complexities of modern healthcare. By creating a space for dialogue and mentorship, AMA Livewellcon 2026 reinforced its commitment to shaping future leaders in the field.

Underlying all discussions was a recurring theme—Beyond Scalpel and Stethoscope. When he highlighted the fact that a doctor has a life away from just being a medical professional during diagnosis, writing prescriptions, and performing surgeries. In other words, the conference underscored the need to reinvent and strengthen doctor-patient trust. In recent years, this relationship has faced increasing strain, often exacerbated by systemic challenges and communication gaps. Therefore, the conference was not limited to theoretical discourse for each session was designed to be actionable, culminating in valuable insights and a roadmap for implementation.

Dr. Prakash Jit, the SP of Ahmedabad Medical Association, shared, "A healthy society depends on strong collaboration between healthcare and law enforcement. Proactive awareness and timely action can significantly improve community wellbeing."

As the conference ended, it became evident that its impact extended far beyond the one-day agenda. By shifting focus from purely clinical expertise to a more holistic understanding of healthcare, Ahmedabad Medical Association has set a precedent for how medical conferences can evolve in the future.
